Enable the Lord Lieutenant to appoint a Revising Barrister for the revision of lists and the registration of parliamentary voters in the county of Dublin.

A.D. 1881.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

5 1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the County of Dublin Parliamentary Revision Act, 1881. Short title.

2. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland for the time being from time to time to appoint a barrister-at-law, who shall have actually practised Power to appoint revising barrister.
10 ten years at the least in the High Court of Justice in Dublin, and who shall not at the time of his appointment have retired from such practice, to discharge all the duties with regard to the registration of parliamentary voters in the county of Dublin which are capable of being discharged by the Recorder of Dublin.

15 After such appointment has been made, the Recorder shall cease to discharge the duties with reference to the registration of voters heretofore discharged by him. The person so appointed shall have, with respect to such registration, the same powers, duties, rights, and privileges as the said Recorder.

20 The provisions of the several Acts which regulate the registration of parliamentary voters in counties in Ireland, shall apply to the revision from time to time carried out by the person so appointed, as fully as such provisions would have applied if the revision had been carried out by the said Recorder.

25 The person so appointed shall be styled "revising barrister for the county of Dublin," and shall hold office during good behaviour, and shall be paid out of moneys to be provided by Parliament such annual salary as the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or [Bill 208.]
